The MEC for Social Development, Mrs. Nonkosi Mvana, wishes you and your loved ones a blessed Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

The festive season is the time to pause and give thanks for our achievements during the year. As we are celebrating, let us mobilize our efforts to share our good fortune with the vulnerable children and the poor in the spirit of building cohesive; caring and sustainable communities

Building a Caring Society. Together.